One day I was sitting at home
I said, one day practising my trombone
It was boring; I was all on my own
Needing just one friend to play with.
That's when someone came up to me and said
"Come on! There's a place you should be,
There are wind bands, choirs and orchestras too
And it's even got a tuck shop!"

You need to come and join
SAYM
It's fun to play at SAYM
You can play flute
You can play the cello
You can see everyone you know
You need to come and join
SAYM
It's fun to play at SAYM
Young man young man
There's no need to feel blue
Young man young man
It's what you've got to do
